

Who Do We Believe?

Why am I so surprised when my friends or acquaintances readily believe lies that are told on me? Are you? When In Eden, the snake began to attack God's integrity with lies, Eve immediately believed him. The snake, who is believed to be satan incarnate, was someone whom she had not previously known, yet, she believed him over her greatest friend.

Was it because of the power of the sinister influence of a supernatural spirit? Is this the same spirit that works in mankind today to state things before they are proven? Perhaps we should be more careful of the stories we repeat because death and life are in the power of the tongue. Consider the source; we may be entering into someone else's war.

Genesis 3:3 & 4 but of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said: Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die.' And the serpent said unto the woman: 'Ye shall not surely die;

But they did die. Don't believe every spirit
